The Australian Institute of Refrigeration, Air Conditioning and Heating (AIRAH) is the leading specialist membership association for professionals and practitioners in the heating, ventilation, air conditioning and refrigeration (HVAC&R) industry. AIRAH provides an industry voice; builds the skills of members and the industry; shapes policy and regulatory frameworks, standards and guidelines; provides knowledge sharing, education and training; and delivers conferences, forums and events.

OUR MISSION
To create an Australian HVAC&R industry that is highly skilled and professional, safe, sustainable and environmentally effective.

OUR VISION
Safe, sustainable, healthy and effective environments.

Strategic Plan
2020–2022
The AIRAH 2020–2022 Strategic Plan delivers some of AIRAH’s key events and initiatives:

Our Goals & Strategies:

AIRAH is pursuing four primary goals to achieve its mission:

Membership

Australia’s peak membership body for HVAC&R professionals and practitioners

- Introduce an accreditation program and become an assessment scheme for registration of professional engineers
- Develop programs, and recognise diversity to strengthen our membership and HVAC&R visibility and community engagement

Industry Voice

The industry voice for resilience, sustainability, safety and innovation in HVAC&R

- Facilitate innovation to create net zero buildings
- Advocate for licensing and registration change to support regulatory compliance and the transition to low-GWP refrigerants

Education

The leading provider of industry-recognised technical knowledge, education and training

- Create and deliver education programs to support technical and professional careers, safety and compliance
- Build our range of technical tools and resources

Collaboration

Create strong government and industry influence and commercial linkages

- Develop constructive and influential relationships with government and industry
- Collaborate with government and industry to develop technical tools and training programs
